Medal Success
A Team Effort
A sportscotland special for Beijing
Medals are won by individuals.

But behind every winner is a great team helping them to perform on the world stage.

Scotland’s athletes are better supported than they have ever been. On top of the outstanding contribution of coaches, parents, friends, family and volunteers, all athletes competing in Beijing have benefited from the dedication and commitment of organisations whose work is designed to help them perform on the world stage.
The sportscotland group is made up of sportscotland and the sportscotland Trust Company (National Centres). sportscotland incorporates the Scottish Institute of Sport, the high-performance arm of sportscotland.
